

St. Croix International Quilters' Guild
BY-LAWS and STANDING RULES

~ BY-LAWS ~

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this organization shall be the St. Croix International Quilters' Guild (a chapter of Pine Tree Quilters Guild), hereafter, the Guild.

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE AND LIMITATIONS

Section 1: The purpose of this Guild shall be:

- A. To promote cooperation and exchange of ideas among those persons interested in or engaged in quilting.
- B. To further the education and skill levels of the members of this Guild.
- C. To preserve the heritage of quilting and promote quilt-related activities.

Section 2: This Guild is not organized for personal profit. All activities of the Guild shall be conducted in such a manner so that no part of the net income may benefit any individual member except that a member may be hired as a principal lecturer/teacher by the Executive Board.

Section 3: No substantial part of the activities of the Guild shall consist of the publication or dissemination of materials with the purpose of attempting to influence legislation, and the Guild shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign or benefit of any candidate for public office or for or against any cause or measure being submitted to the people for a vote. The Guild shall not, except in an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes described above.

Section 4: All donations which are made in the name of the Guild shall be to non-profit organizations that are operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes.

Section 5: In the event of dissolution, any and all properties owned by the Guild shall be distributed only to organizations which qualify as non-profit under the Internal Revenue Service code, and as the Executive Board shall select as recipients.

ARTICLE III: PRINCIPAL OFFICE

Section 1: The principal office for the transaction of the business of the Guild shall be the home address of the current Guild President. The principal place of business may be changed from time to time and other places established by actions of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Membership of the Guild is open to anyone.

Section 2: The membership year shall be from August 1 through July 31.

Section 3: Membership annual dues shall be established and periodically reevaluated by the Executive Board. Any suggested changes will be submitted to the membership for approval by majority vote. Approved membership annual due revisions will be effective at the next renewal period or immediately for new members.

ARTICLE V: OFFCIERS AND DUTIES

Section 1: COMPOSITION

- B. Paper supplies and coffee will be purchased with Guild funds.
- C. Guild members will be solicited to provide snacks as directed by the Executive Board.

VI. Programs and Workshops

Definitions of Programs, Workshops, and Special Workshops are as follows:

- A. A program is the activity which occurs during the regular monthly business meeting. It may be a lecture, demonstration, or hand-on feature, but is open to all members and requires no registration or fee. However, a kit may be sold to members who wish to participate in hands-on activity.
- B. A workshop occurs at the Wednesday evening or Saturday day-long meeting, may require pre-registration and a fee, and includes actually making something.
- C. A special workshop will be conducted by a regionally or nationally known teacher outside the Guild membership. Travel expenses and fees charged by the teacher will be covered by the Guild funds plus a workshop fee from the participants as determined by the Board. Kit fees may be added by the speaker/teacher. Members will be given the first opportunity to participate, but the Board may decide on non-member participation to help defray costs incurred.
- D. An honorarium may be given to members presenting a program or workshop. The Board may establish an honorarium amount during their term in office. In addition, any expenses incurred may be reimbursed by the Guild.

VII. Special Events

- A. A special event is any activity that is not a regular program or workshop (i.e., seminar, retreat and/or bus trip, etc.).
- B. Special events may be scheduled by the Executive Board under direction from the membership.

VIII. Special Committees

- A. Chairpersons of Special Committees are not voting members of the Executive Board and therefore are not required to attend Board Meetings. Chairpersons are appointed as necessary by the President with the advice of the Executive Board.

B. The following are Special Committees:

- a. Block of the Month/Fabric Drawing—will choose the design of the monthly quilt block and provide copies of directions for members at business meetings. The Chairperson shall collect blocks, hold drawings, and explain the construction techniques necessary to make the new block. The committee is also responsible for the monthly ½ yard fabric swap by announcing a theme for fabric to be brought in each month.
- b. Historian—will take photographs, keep records of newsworthy events, and maintain a scrap book to be available for viewing at all meetings. All photographs and scrapbooks will be the property of the Guild.
- c. Hospitality—will arrange light refreshments and other details needed to promote a social atmosphere at all business meetings. The Committee will solicit members to help provide food and the Guild will fund the purchase of paper products and coffee.
- d. Show and Tell—will be responsible for encouraging and presenting member projects at each business meeting.
- e. Representative to Area 5 of Pine Tree Quilters' Guild—will act as a liaison between the Guild and Pine Tree Quilters Guild (including Area 5 activities) and will keep members informed of meetings, special events and other items of interest. (This position will be held by the president.)
